

Contents

Foreword

Gabriele Kasper

Introduction

Donna Tatsuki

Section 1: Pragmatics in language learning and development

The Place of Pragmatics in Language Learning

Marshall Childs

Face-work with Limited Linguistic Resources: Showing Concern for Face during Language Learning Conversations

Eric Hauser

Section 2: Pragmatic contributions to language theory

Acceptance and Ritual Acceptance anticipated by Prosodic Features

Megumi Kawate-Mierzejewska

Greetings in English: Naturalistic speech versus textbook speech

Yuki Kakiuchi

A Comparison of Compliments and Compliment Responses in Television Interviews, Film and “Naturally Occurring Data”

Donna Tatsuki

Midori Nishizawa

Remedial Interactions in Film

Yuriko Kite

Donna Tatsuki

Pragmatic strategies of Japanese elderly people

Sayoko Yamashita

Section 3: Pedagogical innovations with a pragmatic focus

Classroom pragmatics using video clips

John Rylander

A general format for sociopragmatic awareness raising lessons

H. P. L. Molloy

“Why no tip?” Student-nominated DCTs in the ESL Classroom

Terry McLean

Language variation analysis

Yuki Kakiuchi

Why shift forms when addressing the same person?: Raising awareness about the pragmatic use of the Japanese plain and desu/masu forms

Kazutoh Ishida

The speech act of suggesting as part of peer response activities

Mayumi Fujioka

Contributor Information